MultiCase

Highly functional classic in a noble look

Lithe and lissome: And very practical. With MultiCase, DICOTA is offering a sophisticatedly partitioned Notebook case for the safe transportation of your mobile computing equipment. The especially effective, yet light-weight safety padding made of High-Density Foam (HDF) protects Notebooks up to 15.4” and makes for a maximum of safety. The Notebook compartment can easily be locked. The integrated and adjustable divider allows for perfect fixation of the Notebook. Cell phone, pens and business cards are always ready-to-hand in the designated pockets in the workstation. Additional storage room for your mobile equipment is offered by the spacious front compartment as well as the open document pouch on the back. The padded boomerang-shaped shoulder strap keeps your hands free and makes transportation pleasant. Manufactured from durable polyester, MultiCase not only convinces with its inner values, but also with timeless elegance.
